The screenshot shows the Facebook help page for reporting a privacy violation. The page has a blue header with the Facebook logo and a search bar. Below the header is a navigation menu with links like 'Hjálparmiðstöð', 'Istenska', 'Creating an Account', 'Your Profile', 'Friending', 'Facebook Dating', 'Your Home Page', 'Messaging', 'Reels', 'Stories', 'Photos', 'Videos', 'Gaming', 'Pages', 'Groups', 'Events', 'Meta Pay', 'Marketplace', 'Apps', 'Facebook Mobile Apps', and 'Accessibility'. The main content area is titled 'Report a Violation of your Privacy on Facebook'. It contains a disclaimer, a form to select a country (currently 'Austria'), a field for 'Fullt Nafn', a field for 'Please provide your email address', a section for 'Who's privacy is being violated?' with radio buttons for 'My Privacy', 'A Minor's Privacy', and 'Another Adults Privacy', a dropdown for 'Are you the legal guardian or legal representative?' (currently 'Já'), a dropdown for 'Is the child under the age of 13?' (currently 'Já'), a dropdown for 'Do you have the URL of the photo(s) or video(s) you're trying to report?' (currently 'Já'), a dropdown for 'Are you reporting an image or a video?' (currently 'Mynd'), and a field for 'Please provide a link to the image you are reporting' with a placeholder 'URL (http://...)'. A 'Sendu' button is at the bottom right.
